D&W Fine Pack Acquires Canadian Packaging Supplier

Fountain Inn, SC: D&W Fine Pack, a Mid Oaks Investments LLC portfolio company, announces the acquisition of Tri-City Packaging Ltd. Tri-City Packaging comes to D&W as a well-established packaging supplier of plastic containers in the Canadian market, serving the bakery, poultry, fruit and vegetable markets. Tri-City enhances D&W's ability to serve the Canadian foodservice market. The company will maintain its operation in Waterloo, Canada. Don Hexamer, President of Tri-City, will continue in that capacity with D&W Fine Pack Canada, Inc.

Bill Williams, President and CEO of D&W Fine Pack, says, "Our acquisition of Tri-City expands our North American positioning, which broadens our ability to serve our customers, deepen our product portfolio and develop new, innovative capabilities. This furthers our Canadian presence and market penetration, supporting our overall food packaging leadership within North America."

D&W Fine Pack, a leader in food packaging and foodservice disposables, is now one of the largest foodservice packaging firms in North America, providing a broad variety of solutions in single-use containers, tableware, cutlery, straws and meal kits. As a committed leader in sustainable products, D&W promotes eco-friendly packaging using sustainable resources.
